two ways :: one outcome

Respect for diversity

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must respect diversity and must not therefore discriminate against others, or the opinions of others, on the ground of their cultural background, , gender, age or disability.

Conflict of interest

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must, if possible, avoid conflict of interest between the member's private interests and official functions and responsibilities.

Where a conflict in fact exists, the member must comply with the member's statutory obligations of disclosure.

Respect for confidences

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must respect the confidentiality of information obtained in confidence in the member's official capacity.

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must not make improper use of confidential information obtained in an official capacity to gain a private benefit or to cause harm to another.

Respect for law

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must obey all relevant Australian and NT laws and Council policies and by laws.

Gifts

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must not solicit or encourage gifts or private benefits from any person who might have an interest in obtaining a benefit from the council.

Accountability

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must be prepared at all times to account for the member's performance as Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members and the member's use of council resources.

Act in the best interest of the whole region

Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must act in what the member genuinely believes to be the best interests of the region, not just your family, skin group etc., community or ward.

In particular, Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members must seek to ensure that the member's decisions and actions are based on an honest, reasonable, and properly informed judgment about what will best advance the best interests of the region.

Breaches of the Code of Conduct:

Breaching the Code of Conduct is seen as serious misconduct. If Councillors, Local Authority Members or Committee members breach the Code of Conduct they will be dealt with under the Council disciplinary procedures and sections 79 – 83 of the Local Government Act. Councillors, Local Authority members and Council Committee members have a duty to report breaches of this Code of Conduct to the President, Deputy President or CEO.
